

Roger Williams University
Office of Development
Memorandum of Agreement
Permanently Restricted Scholarship Endowment

This Memorandum of Agreement ("Agreement") is made this 17th day of June, 2009 between Roger Williams University (hereinafter referred to as "University"), and the Major Alister C. McGregor Memorial Foundation, to establish the Alister C. McGregor Scholarship Fund at the University. This will be a permanently endowed fund at Roger Williams University and the principal will be maintained in perpetuity.

Initial Contribution:

The Donor hereby pledges to contribute $30,000 to the University to establish an endowment for the Alister C. McGregor Scholarship Fund. Scholarship awards shall be distributed from the Fund commencing one full year after the account has been funded. The Donor or any other person may make a subsequent contribution to the University for the Fund. All contributions to the Fund shall be administered pursuant to the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Purpose of the Fund:

The Alister C. McGregor Scholarship Fund is created to honor the memory of Major Alister C. McGregor, who was killed in the line of duty, and who was enrolled in the Roger Williams University School of Justice Studies Graduate Program at the time of his death. The purpose of the Fund is to provide scholarship assistance to attend Roger Williams University for the children of police officers who have been killed in the line of duty.

Restrictions/Criteria:

Recipients of the Fund shall be given to (in order of priority):

1. The children, stepchildren or spouses of police officers from Rhode Island who have been killed in the line of duty, and who have been accepted and enrolled as full-time undergraduate students at Roger Williams University.
2. The children, stepchildren or spouses of police officers from the other New England States who have been killed in the line of duty, and who have been accepted and enrolled as full-time undergraduate students at Roger Williams University.
3. The children, stepchildren or spouses of police officers from Reno, NV who have been killed in the line of duty, and who have been accepted and enrolled as full-time undergraduate students at Roger Williams University.
4. The children, stepchildren or spouses of police officers from any of the other United States who have been killed in the line of duty, and who have been accepted and enrolled as full-time undergraduate students at Roger Williams University.
5. The children or spouses of police officers who have been killed in the line of duty, and who have been accepted and enrolled as full-time graduate students at Roger Williams University. (Rhode Island residents have priority, followed by New England, then Reno, NV, then all U.S. States).
6. In the event that no accepted student applicants meet the above qualifications, scholarship funds will be made available to any children of Rhode Island police, and who have been accepted and enrolled as full-time undergraduate students at Roger Williams University. Of this applicant pool, the decision will be based on financial need.
7. In the event that no accepted student applicants meet the above qualifications, scholarship funds will be made available to students who have been accepted and enrolled as full-time undergraduate students at the Roger Williams University School of Justice Studies, especially those interested in pursuing careers in law enforcement. Of this applicant pool, the decision will be based on financial need.
